

MRS. THOMAS M. SHERY
... Married Friday
(Portrait by Seeman)

Myers-Shery Vows Read In Candlelight Service

Neighborhood Church in Palos Verdes was the scene of a candlelight double ring wedding ceremony last Friday evening, June 24, in which Miss Elois Myers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Myers, 752 Via Del Monte, Palos Verdes, exchanged vows and rings with Thomas Marten Shery.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Margaret Shery, 3921 Via Cardelina, Palos Verdes Estates and Dr. Kurt Shery of Torrance.

On the arm of her father, the bride approached the altar, radiant in her Alfred Angelo original wedding gown. The princess gown was of silk organza over satin and was fashioned with a basque waist and flowing skirt which fell into a chapel train. A crown of pearls and Chantilly lace held the full illusion veil and the bridal bouquet was of white orchids and Stephanotis.

Miss Gail Waite was the maid of honor. She was gowned in yellow chiffon and carried white chrysanthemums. Bridesmaids were Misses Judy Myers and Marion Shery. They, also, wore yellow chiffon and carried white chrysanthemums.

John Nisley was the best man and ushers were Gary Elore and James Cullison.

The Rev. Richard Dawson of Bakersfield stood before the flower banked altar to officiate at the marriage. David Faye, organist, played "Because" and "Ave Maria."

A reception followed in the Devonshire room of the Plush Horse restaurant where Miss Susan Phelps registered the

Will Attend Convention

Mrs. Morry Howard and Mrs. Stanley Mittelman of Hollypark B'nai Brith Women will attend the District Four Convention at the Del Coronado Hotel, San Diego, July 2-6. Approximately four hundred and fifty delegates and alternates are expected to attend from the eight Western States and British Columbia. The theme of the convention is "The Challenge of the Sixties."

Dr. William Haber, chairman of the National Hillel Commission, will speak on "B'nai Brith Youth Meets the Challenge." Along these same lines, Mrs. Leonard King, who is chairman of the Hollypark B'nai Brith Girls, reports that the young girls are planning a very interesting project. They will be donating their time and energies to helping children afflicted with cerebral palsy. They are making dolls, stuffed animals, drool bibs and blankets for the little tots. They also go down to the hospital and help the children at playtime and mealtime.

Lomita Jobs Daughters Install New Officers

Miss Shari Church, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Church of Lomita was installed as Honored Queen of Lomita Bethel 137, International Order of Job's Daughters, in impressive ceremonies at the Lomita Masonic Temple on June 18.

"With a Song in My Heart" was the theme of the installation ceremony and the Queen's colors of poudre blue and silver were used in decorations. Single silver notes and blue flowers were carried by the officers. The line officers carried hearts with double silver notes, blue flowers and silver and blue streamers.

Entrance of the Guardians, Mary Alice Mince and Alvin Croward and the master of ceremonies Donald Hansen, master of the Lomita Blue lodge, marked the beginning of the evening's program.

Installed with Miss Church were Marcia Chamberlain, senior princess; Sophie Glusac, junior princess; Bonnie Baker, guide; and Sharon Bradbury, marshal.

Installing officers were Sharon Brown, retiring honored queen; Carrol Allen, Polly Basile, Laila Willson, Joyce Loedige, Gloria Grubbs Fenter, Carmen Gonzales, Nancy Maxwell, all past honored queens, and Ned Dennen, musician.

After the escort of the Bible the presentation of the flag, the invocation was given by Cecil Dowling, past patron of the Lomita Eastern Star.

Nadine Nickols sang "You'll Never Walk Alone" and "If I Could Tell You." The Bethel choir concluded with "Nearer My God To Thee."

Appointive officers are Laurie Church, chaplain; Sheryl Pool, recorder; Judy Baillie, treasurer; Joan Brink, librarian; Rea Lu Groover, musician; Janice Lewis, Linda Carpenter, Sharon Rabjohn, Sharon Elliott, custodians; Linda Tinch and Linda Holloway, guards.

A reception and dance followed with the Mothers Club serving refreshments.
